UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

FREDDERICKA T. BRADSHAW,

Plaintiff,

VS.

DISCOVER FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 13-CV-599

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO PROCEED IFP

[Dkt. No. 2]

Plaintiff Freddericka T. Bradshaw has commenced a civil action against Defendant Discover Financial Services for violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. (Dkt. No. 1.) Plaintiff is proceeding with counsel. Instead of paying the $350.00 filing fee, Plaintiff moves to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP"). (Dkt. No. 2.) For the reasons set forth below, Plaintiff's motion to proceed IFP is DENIED and the action is dismissed without prejudice.

DISCUSSION

All parties instituting any civil action, suit, or proceeding in a district court of the United States, except for an application for writ of habeas corpus, must pay a filing fee of $350.00. 28 U.S.C. § 1914. An action may proceed despite a plaintiff's failure to prepay the entire fee only if the plaintiff is granted leave to proceed IFP pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). See Rodriguez v. Cook, 169 F.3d 1176, 1177 (9th Cir. 1999).

A party need not be completely destitute to proceed IFP. Adkins v. E.I. DuPont de Nemours & Co., 335 U.S. 331, 339-40 (1948). But, "the same even-handed care must be employed to assure that federal funds are not squandered to underwrite, at public expense, either frivolous claims or the remonstrances of a suitor who is financially able, in whole or in material part, to pull his own oar." Temple v. Ellerthorpe, 586 F. Supp. 848, 850 (D.R.I. 1984) (citing Brewster v. North Am. Van Lines, Inc., 461 F.2d 649, 651 (7th Cir. 1972).

In an attached declaration, Plaintiff states that she has a monthly salary of $1,758.00. She owns outright a car valued at $1,749.00, furniture valued at $900.00, a computer valued at $400,00, clothing valued at $250.00, and jewelry valued at $200.00. She indicates that she owns a house "valued at $99,199.00 with $226.858.83 owed." She reports average monthly expenses of $1999.55, which includes $1,029 for her mortgage, $40 for recreation, $40 for personal grooming and hygiene, and $91 for phone/Internet/cell phone.

Although this is a close case, it appears Plaintiff could pay the filing fee by making acceptable sacrifices to other expenses. The motion to proceed IFP is DENIED and the case is DISMISSED without prejudice.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's motion to proceed IFP and DISMISSES the Complaint without prejudice. Plaintiff has forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order to reopen the case by paying the $350 filing fee. If Plaintiff fails to do so, the case will remain closed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
